

Patient Informed Consent & Statutory Disclosure Notice

Document Ref:	HC-2026-889A	Directive ID:	Section 12(a) Regulatory Code
Target Audience:	Patient / Legal Guardian	Classification:	High Jargon Density (Legal/ Medical)

1. Statutory Terms and Medical Disclosure

Pursuant to Section 12(a) of the Healthcare Compliance Directive, the undersigned patient or designated legal proxy hereby acknowledges receipt of the clinical prognosis and associated pharmacological risks. Notwithstanding prior verbal communications, the therapeutic intervention may induce transient adverse events including, but not limited to, somnolence, vertigo, or mild gastrointestinal distress.

By executing this document, the patient indemnifies the facility against non-negligent clinical outcomes, confirming that all prophylactic measures and post-procedural contraindications have been reviewed in full prior to administration.

Demo Testing Objectives for VerbaClear:

- Complex Jargon Terms: Pursuant, Legal proxy, Pharmacological risks, Transient adverse events, Somnolence, Vertigo, Indemnifies, Prophylactic, Contraindications.
- Simplification Goal: Verify ELI10 / Plain-English conversion for patient comprehension.
- Visual & Audio Aid: Test text-to-speech audio rendering and Bionic Reading font overlay.

Patient / Legal Proxy Signature

Date (MM/DD/YYYY)